

STATE AND COUNTY

Department of Agriculture comes to the rescue of the rag patch name "pomelo." Seems to us it used to be "shaddock" in Webster's dictionary, but does that sound too much like a fish?

Accused of mutilating deer which were killed on the North Umpqua river, Mark Jones and Ike Glikson, of Roseburg, were arrested. They were fined $30 each. In a cabin where the men were staying the game warden found several sacks filled with venison.

L. F. Slavens of Bandon, claims the champion Plymouth Rock hen of the state. The hen recently laid an egg measuring eight inches in circumference one way and six and three-fourths inches the other. The hen is a consistent layer and Mr. Slavens is looking for her to establish a new record for Plymouths.

Judge John Hall, newly elected and master of the I. O. O. F. lodge, adopted a novel means of getting away when he arrived in Coquille and the train gone. He hired a mule and two Greeks and helped pump the car 20 miles to Marshfield in 1 hour and 20 minutes. This was much behind the schedule made by the local train.

The Fish and Game appointments made last week by the governor were: Game Warden, A. H. Lea of Portland; Master Fish Warden, R. E. Clanton, Portland; State Biologist, William Finley, Portland; Superintendent of Fish Hatcheries, appointed to be made later; Chief Clerk, Game Warden, F. M. Brown, Brownsville.

The O. W. R. & N. Co. announces construction work, entailing the expenditure of $100,000,000 will be undertaken immediately. It will include new terminal facilities at Walla Walla, new division headquarters at the Dalles, completion of the Coyote cut-off in eastern Oregon and establishment of another terminal at Pilot Rock junction, near Pendleton.

That the determination to have a road in Washington county is being demonstrated by the large and enthusiastic gathering of farmers held last Thursday at the D. Lilly place on the Thatcher road in the Hillside section. It was under the auspices of the West Dairy Commercial Club, and in response to the invitation of the club, some seventy men—with their wives and children—met and worked on the road leading to the Hamford Stone Quarry.

A breach of promise suit growing out of a proposal by mail was begun in the circuit court of Linn county some days ago by Miss A. O. Hill of Dayton, O., who asks $10,000 damages from Arthur McDaniel of Brownsville, Ore. She alleges that McDaniel wrote her proposing marriage, and six days before the date that he was to appear at her home in Ohio for the wedding she received a letter saying he had "changed his mind." She says her friends knew of the arrangements and that she has suffered humiliation.

The state land board last week appointed W. L. Patterson land agent at Baker county, succeeding C. H. McCulloch; Thomas H. Tongue, Jr., land agent Washington county, succeeding John M. Wall, and Arthur Langguth, land agent of Multnomah county, succeeding Warren E. Thomas. Governor Withycombe and State Treasurer Kay voted for the changes, Secretary of State Olcott opposing them. The board authorized the advertising for sale of 9000 acres of school land recently surveyed in Umatilla, Lake and Malheur counties.

To prevent the erection and maintenance of three fishtraps at points where it is alleged they will interfere with the operation of gillnets and seines, an action was filed in the circuit court last week by the Sanborn Lumbering Company. C. G. Monroe and nine other gillnetters against Governor Withycombe, R. E. Clanton, Master Fish Warden; the members of the State Board of Fish Commissioners, and R. E. Farrell. As Circuit Judge Bakke was not in the city, a temporary injunction, asked pending the hearing of the case, was granted by County Judge Cornelius.

Roy Norton of Sumner, and Geo. Matthews of Looking Glass, last week reported encountering, while riding from Douglas to Coos county on a stage, in Brewster canyon, two cougars engaged in deadly combat. The horses were not frightened at the cougars and seemed as interested as the onlookers. The large cats fought for five to eight minutes within 40 feet of the party, who several times tried out at them to scare them away, receiving no attention except a quick look from each, when they would turn again to the fray. The highway was strewn with fur. One cougar finally made off down the road, while the successful fighter disappeared in the undergrowth.

Attorney General Brown has appointed J. O. Bailey, associated for the past five years with the law firm of Platt & Platt of Portland, second assistant. J. H. Van Winkle occupies the position of first assistant, and Joseph Benjamin that of third assistant. The last legislature increased the attorney general's number of deputies from two to three. Bailey is a graduate of Harvard university, and prior to engaging in practice in Portland practiced in Spokane.

That business conditions in Oregon are improving is asserted by State Bank Superintendent Sargent of Salem, who reported Wednesday on the condition of the banks of the state at the close of business, May 1. The report shows a gain in deposits since March 4, when the last statements were called, of $2,690,475.91 with a decrease in loans of $1,702,202.79. Bills payable and rediscounts have been reduced $257,932.51 and the reserve amounts to 32 per cent of the deposits. The National banks, since March 4, have paid in stock assessments to the Federal reserve bank a total of $136,784.61.
